Grameenphone Academy conducted the 7th campus townhall at the cafeteria hall of the University of Liberal Arts Bangladesh in Dhaka on Saturday.

The university vice-chancellor professor Imran Rahman along with Grameenphone chief corporate affairs officer Hans Martin and chief digital and strategy officer Solaiman Alam inaugurated the event, said a press release.

With the promise of inclusive upskilling and fourth industrial revolution readiness, Grameenphone introduced Grameenphone Academy in May, 2022. It is a free upskilling platform for the youth with the tagline #GetFutureReady.

Farhana Hossain Shammu, programme lead of Grameenphone Academy, narrated the objective of the academy with an engaging presentation.

The inauguration was followed by a training session on 'Leadership Skills' by Solaiman Alam, who shared the gist of his 23 years of professional experience to give a direction for future leadership to the young crowd.
