Daffodil International University celebrated its 21st Foundation Day on the university campus at Ashulia in Savar on the outskirts of Dhaka on Tuesday.

Marking the day, a cake-cutting event was held at the academic building of the university, where Daffodil Family chairman Md Sabur Khan was present as chief guest, while vice-chancellor professor M Lutfar Rahman, pro-VC professor SM Mahub Ul Haque Majumder, treasurer Mominul Haque Majumder, deans of the different faculties, heads of the departments and students were present.

At the event, Sabur Khan praised all those whose efforts had brought the university to its current prestigious position and established the university as a renowned one in the country.

He also expressed his desire to see the university become the number-one university in the coming years and vowed to continue his tireless efforts for the university's gradual development, both in terms of quality and physical infrastructure.

The university officially started its journey on January 24, 2002.
