DMC closed sine die

Varsity Correspondent

The Dhaka Medical College demanded his resignation.

Meanwhile, All-Party Student Unity of Dhaka Medical College

(DMC) authorities declared the college closed for an indefinite period on Monday considering the deteriorating situation arising out of the death of a student Tanveer Ahmed.

Tanveer Ahmed Ferdous, a second year student of DMC was killed in a road accident on Sunday noon at Lama Bazar on Dhaka-Sylhet highway while he along with his two class-mates was going to Sylhet by a microbus.

The authorities asked the students to vacate the hostel by 5 p.m. on the day but the students, who went on a non-stop strike on Sunday demanding punishment to the killers of Tanveer and those who were responsible for the attack on DMC campus did not vacate the hostel till writing of this report at 11 p.m.

The students damaged several vehicles at Bakshi Bazar crossing in protest against the killing of Tanveer on Sunday. They also accused the DMC Principal of failing to maintain law and order on the college and
