Four Rajshahi University students who were seriously injured in Saturday's clash with locals and police have been sent to Dhaka for better treatment today.

They started off for Dhaka around 7:00am on an ambulance, RU Proctor Asabul Haque said.

Three of them will be treated at the National Institute of Ophthalmology and one at Dhaka Medical College Hospital.

Yousuf Ali, head of Ophthalmology Department at Rajshahi Medical College Hospital, said shotgun pellets entered the eyes of the three injured students and the hospital authorities referred them to Dhaka for better treatment.
