Headmaster stabbed by expelled student in Manikganj

Our Correspondent . Manikganj | Updated at 12:30pm on April 10, 2023

A man was stabbed by his student in Manikganj on Sunday afternoon.

The victim is Mizanur Rahman, headmaster of Balirtek Khabashpur High School in Manikganj Sadar upazila.

Aftab Uddin, assistant headmaster of Khabashpur High School, said that Mizanur Rahman was attacked by Raju Ahmed, an expelled student of the school, and his associates.

Aftab Uddin also said that Raju Ahmed got expelled from the school in 2022 while studying in Class IX for stalking schoolgirls.

Raju's father Shahidul Islam was as an office assistant of Khabaspur High School, he added.

The victim was first admitted to Manikganj 250-Bed Hospital and later he was shifted to Dhaka for better treatment.

Manikganj Sadar police officer-in-charge Abdur Rauf said that the police were trying to arrest Raju.
