Police recovered the body of an unidentified man on Thursday morning from the campus of Jahangirnagar University in Savar, on the outskirts of Dhaka.

The body was found in the forest conservation area called 'Bishmail', said JU acting proctor Tazuddin Shikdar.

The proctor also confirmed that the deceased was neither a student nor an employee of the university.

Ashulia police sub-inspector Nur Alam told New Age that they recovered the body around midday following information from the JU security office.

'There were injury signs in the neck, eyes and elbows of the deceased. An unnatural death case was filed with the police station,' he said.

The body was sent to Shaheed Suhrawardy Medical College Hospital morgue.

Ashulia police officer-in-charge Md Kamruzzaman said that legal action would be taken in this regard.
