CU BCL leaders harass journalist

Staff Correspondent . Chattogram | Published at 12:37am on June 19, 2023

A group of Bangladesh Chhatra League leaders from the Chattogram University unit allegedly harassed a journalist on the campus.

The Chittagong University Journalists Association filed a complaint with CU proctor Nurul Azim Sikder on Sunday.

The accused were CU BCL vice-presidents Nuruddin Khan and Sheikh Ahmad, deputy training affairs secretary Arman Hossain Roman and BCL activist Md Tamjidul Islam. According to the complaint, they were followers of CU unit BCL president Rezaul Hoque Rubel.

The complaint said that the BCL leaders harassed journalist Mohammad Azhar while he was attending a programme on the CU campus on June 16. The BCL leaders took away Azhar's mobile phone while he was capturing the BCL leader's factional altercation with others.

Chittagong University Journalists Association president Mahbub A Rahman said that they filed a complaint against the BCL leaders, who harassed journalist Azhar, with the proctor.

CU BCL vice-president Nuruddin Khan denied the allegation and said that no such incident occurred on June 16.

CU proctor Nurul Azim Sikder said that they were investigating the incident.
