American International University–Bangladesh (AIUB) student affairs office organised a meeting titled 'Meet the Future Leaders' at its campus recently.

During the programme, the president, general secretary, and the individual in charge of AIUB student clubs engaged in an interactive session with AIUB board of trustees' founder member and chairman Ishtiaque Abedin, said a press release.

Ishtiaque Abedin conveyed his pleasure and addressed the club members, expressing his enthusiasm for the opportunity to interact with them in such a session.

The club members introduced themselves to the honourable chairman and briefly outlined their activities and future plans.

Ishtiaque Abedin offered valuable suggestions and advice, extending his wholehearted support for their future endeavours. He motivated the aspiring leaders to aim high and diligently pursue their dreams.

AIUB proctor Manzur H Khan commenced the meeting by providing a concise overview of the student clubs. He discussed their operational procedures and shared a list of upcoming clubs at AIUB.

The meeting was graced by the presence of other notable individuals, including AIUB board of trustees' member Shania Mahia Abedin, AIUB treasurer prof Dr Nisar Ahmed, registrar Dr Zahidul Islam Khan.

Deans, associate deans, faculty members and other officials of the university were also attended the event.
