How to see HSC, equivalent exam results this year

Staff Correspondent | Updated at 11:41am on November 26, 2023

Candidates can see their results of Higher Secondary Certificate (HSC) and equivalent examinations of the year of 2023 online or through sending SMS to 16222.

To get the results under general boards through SMS, according to a press release issued by the Dhaka Education Board, candidates have to type HSC, the first three letters of the board name, followed by the candidate's roll number and the year, and send it to 16222.

For example, a candidate who sat for this year's exams under the Dhaka board with a roll number of '1000000' will have to send: HSC(space)Dha(space)123456(space)2023 and send the SMS to 16222.

Likewise, to obtain the Alim results, students need to send text message by typing ALIM [space] MAD [space] Roll Number [space] 2023 and send it to 16222.

For technical board results, the students will have to type HSC [space] Tec [space] Roll Number [space] 2023 and send it to 16222.

Alternatively, the candidates can also get their results from

<http://www.educationboardresults.gov.bd>
(<http://www.educationboardresults.gov.bd>).

Students can download individual result sheets by entering roll and registration numbers.

Educational institutions can also download their results from

<https://dhakaeducationboard.gov.bd>
(<https://dhakaeducationboard.gov.bd>)/ by putting in the EIIN number of the institution.

A total of 13,59,342 students were registered for the HSC and equivalent exams. Of them, 6,88,887 are boys and 6,70,455 are girls.
