Jasimuddin's poem included in UK publication

A piece from the selected poems of Jasimuddin has been included in a publication for British primary student, reports BSS.

The name of the poem is 'O baian Chal Matha Langal Balte' (Oh father, come let us plough). The publication has been brought out by Christian Aid, a division of the British Council of Churches and distributed by Oxford University Press.

The 'selected poems of Jasimuddin' is the English translation of an anthology of poems by the famous Bangladesh pastoral poet. The anthology was translated by the poet's daughter Mrs. Hasna Jasimuddin Moudud.
