Engineering faculty of American International University-Bangladesh organised a seminar titled 'Contemporary Korea: History, Democracy, Economy, Peace and Security' included in 'Dr Anwarul Abedin Lecture Series' by PARK Young-Sik, Korean ambassador to Bangladesh on Tuesday in AIUB auditorium.

Professor ABM Siddique Hossain, dean of AIUB's engineering faculty, inaugurated the seminar with a welcome speech where he emphasised the prosperity of Korea in the field of semiconductor industry, IoT-based chips, and devices as well as in the field of education.

Keynote speaker PARK Young-Sik began the session by providing an overview of Korean history. He demonstrated – how Korea has firmly overcome increased corporate failure, labour market rigidity, declining marginal capital and achieved financial stability.

Later, he wished for 50 years of bilateral diplomatic relations between Korea and Bangladesh. Then, a short Q&A session was held for the participants.

Prof Md Abdur Rahman, pro-vice-chancellor of AIUB, delivered the closing speech and thanked the keynote speaker for his inspiring talk.

Dulce Lamagna Majumdar, member of AIUB's board of trustees, presented token of appreciation to PARK Young-Sik and Young-min Seo, first secretary of Korean embassy in Bangladesh.
