A memorandum of understanding was signed on Tuesday between Bangladesh Open University and Fareast International University aimed at promoting mutual collaboration and cooperation in research and academic programmes.

The MoU will also cover sharing of resources and opportunities of both the universities to let the students improve their quality which will ultimately expand their knowledge in educational research, said a press release.

The MoU was signed at an event chaired by BOU vice-chancellor professor Syed Humayun Akhter at BOU's conference hall.

BOU registrar Mohammad Shafiqul Alam and FIU registrar Md Mashiur Rahman signed the MoU on behalf of their respective institutions.

BOU VC Syed Humayun said the two universities will make a special contribution to academic collaboration through this agreement.

‘Classes of BoU’s all the programmes will be web-based so that students can participate in the learning process more easily from any location,’ added the BoU VC.

FIU board of trustees chairman and Bangladesh Private University Association president Sheikh Kabir Hossain said that he was hopeful about opening new dimensions in the field of education and research between the two universities.

FIU VC professor Rakib Ahmad, BOU pro-VC (administration) Professor Nasim Banu, pro-VC (education) Mahbuba Nasreen and FIU treasurer Md Monjur-e-Khoda Tarafdar, among others, were present on the occasion.
