

Railway exam to be cancelled if proof of question leak found: PSC chairman

Sohorab Hossain. Photo: Collected

Public Service Commission (PSC) Chairman Sohorab Hossain today said the recruitment exam for the railway engineer post will be cancelled if evidence of question paper leaks is found.

"A committee has already been formed to investigate the allegations of question paper leaks. The committee will submit a report within 15 days. Based on the committee's recommendations, the exam will be cancelled," said the PSC chairman at a press conference at the PSC in the capital's Agargaon in the afternoon.

For all latest news, follow The Daily Star's Google News channel.

Read more

Job seekers demand cancellation of PSC exam after reports of leaked questions

He was speaking after meeting with a group of job seekers who organised a human chain and held a protest rally in front of the building, demanding the cancellation of the recruitment exam for 10th-grade railway posts under the PSC.

The job seekers held the human chain and protest rally for around three hours from 10:00am.

The recruitment exam for 516 sub-assistant engineer posts in 11 categories of the 10th grade of the railway under the PSC was held last Friday.