

Sher-e-Bangla Agricultural University celebrates founding anniversary

Staff Correspondent 12 September, 2024, 01:12

Share

Tweet

Email

Share

Print

Sher-e-Bangla Agricultural University bring out a procession on the occasion of the university's 24th founding anniversary on the campus in Dhaka on Wednesday. | Press release

Sher-e-Bangla Agricultural University's celebrated the 24th founding anniversary on its campus in Dhaka on Wednesday.

Marking the day, a colourful procession was brought out that paraded the university campus, said a SAU press release.

Anchored by director of student counselling and guidance of the university Md Rashedul Islam, vice-chancellor of the SAU Professor Md Abdul Latif spoke at a discussion. Deans of various faculties, directors, senior teachers, department chairpersons, hall provosts, officers, staff and students of the university attended the discussion.

The VC congratulated everyone on the occasion.

Dean of various faculties, director, senior teachers, department chairpersons, hall provosts, officers, staff and students were present on the occasion.

In 2001, Sher-e-Bangla Agricultural University started its education programme. At present, undergraduate, postgraduate and PhD degrees are being offered through four faculties and three institutes.