For the first time, the tests will be held in five divisional cities.

"We have decided to hold the exams in 5 divisional cities to ease the sufferings of the students, guardians and others concerned," the VC said.

The first-year honours admission tests will be held at Dhaka University, Khulna University, Chattogram University, Begum Rokeya University, Rangpur and Rajshahi University, he said, adding that admission-seeker can appear in the admission exams from their nearest centre this time.
