Scuffle breaks out between JCD, students at Ctg MES College

A scuffle broke out between a group of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) members and some general students at Omar Gani MES College in Chattogram this afternoon.

The incident took place after a group of JCD members visited the college for a programme where a JCD activist was beaten, but his identity could not be known.

🗞️ For all latest news, follow The Daily Star's Google News channel.

Mojibur Rahman, officer-in-charge of Khulshi Police Station, told The Daily Star, "A group of three JCD leaders, along with a few activists, came to the college campus to promote BNP's 31-point reform proposal. Upon seeing them, a group of general students opposed their presence and asked them to leave the campus."

"An argument ensued between the two groups, leading to a scuffle. Upon receiving information, police rushed to the spot and brought the situation under control," he added.

Witnesses said JCD members entered the campus holding a BNP banner, intending to plant trees.

However, a group of general students stopped them, stating that the campus is politics-free. At one point, the situation escalated into a scuffle, causing panic among students on the campus.