

JU students stage torch procession demanding end to 'anarchy'

Photo: STAR

Jahangirnagar University students took out a torch procession this evening, demanding strengthened security measures on campus and across the country.

The protesters, under the banner of 'Gono Obbhunthan Rokkha Andolon,' began their procession around 6:45pm in front of the Shaheed Minar, marching through several campus streets.

For all latest news, follow The Daily Star's Google News channel.

During the procession, students chanted slogans calling for an end to violence and anarchy.

The procession concluded at Bot Tola with a brief rally.

Speakers condemned the nationwide killings and chaos, including the recent murder of a female garment worker and the tragic death of 6-year-old Muntaha.

Addressing the gathering, Abdur Rashid Zitu, convener of the Gono Obbhunthan Rokkha Andolon, said, "We are deeply concerned about the deteriorating security situation across the country. We urge the police to take an active role in ensuring public safety. Additionally, we call on the university administration to install CCTV cameras at various locations on campus to enhance campus security."