

RU hosts education policy camp 2025

Photo: Star

Rajshahi University today hosted the first-ever Education Policy Camp 2025, an initiative aimed at bridging the gap between academia and industry.

The event, organised by the Rajshahi University Education Club, was held at Room 226 of the Syed Ismail Hossain Siraji Building and featured panel discussions, policy hackathon, and interactive sessions.

For all latest news, follow The Daily Star's Google News channel.

University academics and experts participated in a panel discussion, including Professor Rubaiyat Jahan and Assistant Professor Nasrin Ahmed from the Institute of Education and Research, Professor Dr Babul Islam from the Department of Electrical and Electronic Engineering, and JKM Meshkat Chowdhury, coordinator of the Anti-Discrimination Student Movement.

The discussion focussed on aligning academic curricula with job market.

A highlight of the day was the policy hackathon, where 60 students collaborated to propose innovative solutions for strengthening academia-industry ties.