

Library awareness campaign launched by RU students

Photo: Collected

The "Librarian Voice," an organisation of students from the Information Science and Library Management (ISLM) department at Rajshahi University (RU), launched a Library Awareness Campaign yesterday.

This programme was inaugurated at Rajshahi Government Laboratory High School to promote reading habits and library awareness among students. Around 250 students participated on the first day, engaging in various educational and motivational activities.

For all latest news, follow The Daily Star's Google News channel.

The event was presided over by Assistant Head Teacher AHM Abdur Razzak, with Head Teacher Dr Shahnaz Begum as the chief guest. Representatives of "Librarian Voice," including Farjana Islam Hia and GM Saiful Islam, delivered speeches on the importance of reading and libraries.

In her speech, Shahnaz Begum said, "I hope this unique initiative by Librarian Voice will be very relevant and effective for our students. Thank you all for working with our students."

The campaign is coordinated by Faisal Nomani from Rajshahi University, with support from team members Raihan Ali, Mukul Islam, Bushratun Nahar Bonni, Farzana Akter Munni, Sharmin Suchi, Mushfiqur Rahman, Nazmus Sakib, Naim Hossain, and Sudip Mondal.

Running until February 3, 2025, the campaign will cover seven schools across Dhaka and Rajshahi, under the supervision of Dr Konok Monirul Islam, editor and adviser of "Librarian Voice."