

RU entry test application process starts tomorrow

The primary application process for undergraduate programmes at Rajshahi University (RU) for the 2024-25 academic session, will resume on January 27 at 12:00pm and continue till 11:59pm of February 5.

This information was announced in a press release issued by the university's Public Relations Office today.

For all latest news, follow The Daily Star's Google News channel.

According to the press release, the final application process will be conducted in three phases: from February 11 to 15, February 18 to 20, and February 23 to 24.

The admission tests for the pre-scheduled units will take place as follows: B Unit on April 12, A Unit on April 19, and C Unit on April 26.

The tests are scheduled to be held from 11:00am to 12:00pm at the campuses of public universities located in Rajshahi, Dhaka, Chattogram, Khulna, and Rangpur.

The primary application process was postponed due to the protest on January 2 of students demanding abolishment of ward quota.

The earlier date for the application was January 5 but the university administration decided to postpone it.