

Dhaka College, City College students clash at Science Lab

Photo: Prabir Das

A clash broke out between students of Dhaka College and City College in the capital's Science Laboratory area this morning, leaving several students injured.

Witnesses said both groups engaged in a chase and counter-chase around 11:45am, hurling brick chips at each other, which led to severe traffic congestion in the area.

For all latest news, follow The Daily Star's Google News channel.

Several students were injured in the clash, they said.

Additional police personnel were deployed to bring the situation under control.

Speaking to The Daily Star, Masud Alam, deputy commissioner of Ramna Division Police, said, "Police dispersed the students peacefully after the clash broke out.

"The situation is under control now," he said around 12:45pm.

Asked about the reason behind the clash, the DC said they were investigating the matter.