

JU bans outsiders on campus ahead of JUCSU election

The Jahangirnagar University (JU) administration has imposed a ban on outsiders in the campus, effective from today.

The decision was taken to ensure security on campus ahead of the long-awaited Jahangirnagar University Central Students' Union (JUCSU) and Residential Hall Union elections, according to a press release signed by Mohammad Mahiuddin, acting director of JU's Public Relations Office.

For all latest news, follow The Daily Star's Google News channel.

This restriction will remain in place until further notice.

"All stakeholders of the university are requested to carry their respective identity cards while on campus," said the press release.

JUCSU polls are scheduled to be held on July 31.