HSTU entry tests begin today

Bangladesh Sangbad Sangstha . Dinajpur  05 May, 2025, 01:12

The admission examinations at Hajee Mohammad Danesh Science and Technology University under the 2024-25 academic session will begin on Monday.

This year, 72,984 admission seekers have applied for the tests in four units. Of them, 25,403 applicants will appear in the 'A' unit test on Monday, 22,293 in the 'B' unit on Tuesday, 6,850 in the 'C' unit and 18,438 in the 'D' unit on Wednesday.

Vice-chancellor of the university Professor Md Enamul Haque said that the authorities had taken all-out preparations to hold the examinations without any disruptions.

He sought cooperation from all stakeholders concerned including the admission seekers, their guardians and law enforcement agencies in this regard.

However, university buses will be available at the Dinajpur railway station to transport admission seekers and their guardians to the campus.

During the examinations, medical care will be available on the campus.
