The annual prize-giving ceremony 2024 of Bangladesh University of Professionals was held at the university in Dhaka on Monday.

The event was organized to honour faculties, departments, teachers and students of the BUP for their significant contributions to research, discipline, various national and international events, as well as their sincerity and dedication to university functions, said a press release.

Major General Md Mahbub-ul Alam, BUP vice-chancellor, was present as chief guest and handed over awards to the recipients at the event.

The prize-giving ceremony reflected BUP's continuous commitment to recognising and nurturing talents while instilling values of discipline, excellence and integrity, added the press release.

BUP high officials and other faculty members were also present at the ceremony.
