demand for withdrawal of expulsion orders against three students.

The students also brought out a silent procession on the campus and handed over a memorandum to the Vice-Chancellor.

Later, the processionists came to the Jatiya Press Club and held a meeting in front of the club. Student leaders addressed the meeting.

Meanwhile, APBSC has declared that they would not participate in the ensuing EUCSU election if the authorities did not withdraw the expulsion orders.

EUCSU election is scheduled to be held in the second week of February.
