A 22-advisory committee has been formed on Wednesday for holding the elections of the Dhaka University Central Students' Union and hall unions.

DU vice-chancellor Professor Niaz Ahmed Khan has given the approval of the committee.

Dean of arts faculty Mohammad Siddiqur Rahman Khan and proctor of DU Associate Professor Saifuddin Ahmed have been made convener and secretary general of the advisory council respectively.

The council held its maiden meeting on Tuesday.

The overall preparation for the election, the process of casting votes and ensuring a congenial atmosphere for holding the election in a fair manner were discussed in the meeting, said a press release.
