Information and broadcasting adviser Mahfuz Alam on Tuesday said the education secretary Siddique Zobair has already been withdrawn.

The withdrawal of education secretary (Senior Secretary) Siddique Zobair came amid controversy over the postponement of the ongoing HSC examinations.

Mahfuj Alam said the interim government is committed to accepting any fair demand.

‘A committee is being formed soon to conduct a full investigation into the Milestone tragedy. The investigation committee will be formed by coordinating the six-point demands of the students,’ Mahfuj said in a post from his verified Facebook account.
