

BUET alumni to protest police action on engineering students today

Staff Correspondent  01 September, 2025, 02:03

Share

Tweet

Email

Share

The Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology Alumni association has called a human chain, condemning the police action against engineering students who were peacefully demonstrating for their rights, at the BUET Shaheed Minar in Dhaka today.

They also demand that those responsible be brought to justice, according to a press release on Sunday.

The police used batons, tear gas, water cannons, and sound grenades to disperse peacefully protesting students on 27 August 27, added