They were expelled, suspended over ragging, assault

Khulna University has taken action against 19 students for ragging, assault, blasphemy, and drug-related offences.

The decisions were approved at the university's 27th disciplinary board meeting held on October 9, according to the Office of the Director of Students' Affairs.

Mobarak Hossain Noman of the Bangla discipline was expelled and banned from entering the campus for life for allegedly assaulting a teacher. For drug use, purchase, and sale, Hasan Hawlader of Economics and Aminul Islam of Journalism were expelled. In a separate case of physical violence, Md Zahidul Islam of Law was also expelled. Meheraf Hossain Rabbi and Aminul Ehsan were warned and required to submit written undertakings with their guardians.

For ragging, KM Raiful Alam Ornob of Mathematics was suspended for six months, while Md Rimon Mia, Ahsan Habib, and Md Salman Hossain were fined Tk 5,000 each and ordered to submit undertakings.

Md Umar Faruk and Sadman Ud Doula of Education were suspended for the current term for fighting on campus, while Moniruzzaman Riad of Business Administration and Ziad Al Sams of Education were fined Tk 5,000 each.

Three Mathematics students -- Babul Akter Durjoy, Rashed Khan Menon, and Bandhan Roy -- were suspended for six months for using abusive language and issuing death threats to teachers.

Md Russell Sheikh of Mass Communication and Journalism was expelled for posting blasphemous remarks on social media, while Tonoy Roy was suspended for two years for similar behaviour.
