

Two medical college hospitals get new directors

Bangladesh Sangbad Sangstha . Dhaka 📅 18 November, 2025, 01:25

Share

Tweet

Email

Share

The government has appointed two armed forces division officials as new directors of two medical college hospitals on deputation.

The public administration ministry issued a notification in this regard on Monday.

Discover more ⚡ English language newspaper

⚡ Stocks and investment courses

⚡ Music download platform

⚡ Human rights advocacy resources

⚡ Health and wellness products

⚡ Business news section

According to the notification, Brigadier General ATMA Rustom was appointed director of Sir Salimullah Medical College Hospital and Brigadier General PKM Masud-ul-Islam as director of Rajshahi Medical College Hospital.

The notification said that the two army officers also received promotion to the rank of brigadier general from colonel.

The current director of Sir Salimullah Medical College Hospital Brigadier General Md Mazharul Islam Khan and director of Rajshahi Medical College Hospital Brigadier General FM Shamim Ahammad were returned back to the armed forces division.

The notification said that the order would come into immediate effect.