

Readers' Forum

Tutorials and fees

I wholeheartedly support the views expressed by a guardian of Dhaka through the Reader's Forum of your esteemed daily on the 7th of Dec' 88 under the above heading.

This has been an absolute monopoly of the institutional authorities of English medium Tutorials and Kindergartens of Dhaka to raise fees every year under various pretexts and sometimes without any rhyme or reason whatsoever.

If a thorough investigation is conducted it is bound to reveal the anomalous method of taxing the parents resorted to by the institutions without the barest of privileges and facilities being offered to the pupils. Most of the institutions have no upto date labs, library, hygienic toilets/lavatories, proper playground, playing kits, etcetera, etcetera, not to speak of the quality of teaching that is imparted.

There have been a lot many write-ups in the dailies but things have not changed a little bit. Added burdens of enhanced fees have been piling up on the shoulders of the parents from time to time. There seems to be no remedy in sight.

Will the authorities concerned take up at least for once and affix some regulations on them?

A TORTURED GUARDIAN,
Dhaka.