

020

No headmaster in Narail Govt High School

Our Correspondent

NARAIL, Dec. 1:—The posts of headmaster and assistant headmaster of Narail Government Boys High School have been lying vacant since February, 1988 and August 1984 respectively hampering education of students.

It is learnt that one assistant teacher is in-charge of the headmaster while the post of assistant headmaster has been lying vacant.

As a result the assistant teacher cannot give full attention to his duty including the administrative responsibilities.

While contacted Mr. Harendra Nath Howlader, Deputy Commissioner, Narail and President of this school confirmed the report. He said that the problems of the school was brought to the notice of the higher authority as per discussion in the district development co-ordination committee meeting.