

তারিখ 15 JUN 1989
পৃষ্ঠা 25

148
148

One to die for killing school teacher

Our Correspondent

FARIDGANJ, (Chandpur), June 14: Mr Azizul Haque, district and Sessions Judge, Chandpur in a judgement delivered on May 31 sentenced accused Moktar Hossain in absentia to death by hanging for killing a school teacher. Another accused Hafez Ahmed Bhuiyan, father of Moktar Hossain was acquitted of the charge.

According to the prosecution story, the victim A Aziz, Assistant Headmaster of Govindapur High School in Faridganj upazila was talking to his wife, father-in-law and a relative at his house around 8 p.m. on December 17, '87 at that time accused Moktar alias Litton who is a relative of the victim arrived there while his father stayed outside the house. All on a sudden, Moktar stabbed Aziz Master on his back with a big knife and got away immediately. The victim died on the spot.

Faridganj police after investigation submitted charge sheet Moktar Hossain and his father. Later on, the case was referred to the District Judge Court for trial.

The judge after examining witnesses and evidences awarded death sentence to Moktar by hanging. The punishment to the accused will be effective subsequent to his arrest.

The prosecution was conducted by Advocate Mahabul Haque Patuary PP who was assisted by Advocate Al-Haj Siddiqur Rahman while Advocate Maqbul Ahmed stood for the defence.

PABNA

Our Pabna Correspondent adds: Mr Mahabubur Rahman Assistant District and Sessions Judge, Pabna in a judgement delivered recently sentenced two persons to five years RI and a fine of Tk 5,000 each or in default six month. RI more on the charge of armed robbery.

According to the prosecution on June 3, 1988 accused Rezaul Haq and Saidul Islam along with others looted valuable goods from Pabna PWB godown at gunpoint.

Pabna police submitted charge sheet against the said persons and the judge after examining evidences and witnesses sentenced the accused to the said punishment.