

'Some teachers responsible for DU situation'

By A Staff Reporter

Mirza Abbas, President and Gaeswar Roy, General Secretary of Bangladesh Jatiyatabadi Juba Dal, in a statement on Wednesday resented the statement of Dhaka University Teachers Association (DUTA) at a news conference on Tuesday. The Juba Dal leaders held some teachers responsible for the unholy situation created at Dhaka University. They said those teachers should apologise to the people for their misdeeds. They termed the comment by some DUTA members that Begum Khaleida Zia should apologise as an 'audacity'.

The Juba Dal leaders said those teachers who have thought that people had given them the license for mischievous activities and for establishing 'Mujibism' were in fact living in fool's paradise.

'Govt to improve University Ordinance '73'

Education Minister Sheikh Shahidul Islam told the Jatiya Sangsad on Wednesday that the Government was considering to improve and update the University Ordinance of 1973, reports BSS.

The Minister was replying to a question from Mr. Mohammad Manirul Haq Chowdhury (JP Comilla).
