necessary steps, for arresting the culprits.

Earlier, students brought out an anti-terrorism procession which paraded through the campus. Later a rally was held in front of the Vice-Chancellor's office.

Meanwhile, 748 students of BUET in a statement Saturday condemned the attacks on the EUCSU leader and demanded immediate arrest and trial of the responsible persons for stabbing Ashikur.

In the statement students alleged that, Khokon, an accomplice of Avee was responsible for the attack and was responsible for all kinds of terrorist activities on the BUET campus.

The student also blamed the EUCSU leaders for their silent role and urged the authorities for necessary actions for restoration congenial atmosphere on the campus.
