

BUET workshop begins

BUET Correspondent

A three-day training workshop, jointly organised by the Metallurgical Engineering Department of BUET and Bangladesh Small and Cottage Industries Corporation (BSCIC) began on Thursday at the seminar hall of Civil Engineering building of BUET.

The BUET Vice-Chancellor Prof. M. Shahjahan inaugurated the workshop as the chief guest and Chairman of BSCIC Mr. Moniruzzaman Chowdhury was present as the special guest.

The workshop, organised for the owners and managers of small foundry, is aimed at the identification of problems of the small foundry their probable solutions and increase in production of the industries.

Presided over by the Head of the Department of Metallurgical Engineering Prof A.S.O. Karmi, the workshop was addressed, among others, by the General Manager of the Technology Division of BSCIC Mr. Md. Humayun Kabir and the Director of that division Mr. Mustafa Zamal.

A total of 25 owners and managers of different small foundry are participating at the workshop.

Certificate-giving ceremony held

A certificate awarding ceremony of a computer trading course on "DBASE IV and elementary concept on DBASE programming" organised by the BUET Computer Centre was held on Wednesday at the seminar hall of BUET.

The BUET Vice-Chancellor Prof. M. Shahjahan distributed certificates among the participants as the chief guest.

Presided over by the director of the BUET Computer Centre, Prof. Dr. Md. Mujibur Rahman, the function was addressed by Dr. S.M. Lutful Kabir.

A total of 45 persons from different government, semi-government, autonomous and non-government organisation including army planning commission, PDB, participated in the training course.