Moniruzzaman honoured

Poet Mohammad Moniruzzaman has been honoured by the Li Poetry Society, a forum of South Asian Poets, says a Press release.

A poem of Moniruzzaman has been include in the first ever and unique three volume anthology of Asian Poetry. The special feature of the anthology is that each poem has been translated and published in four languages English, Japanese Chinese and Korean.

Moniruzzaman's poetry has been included in the book 'Word Anthology: A Verse Mosaic' recently published from the United States of America. The book includes poets from all continents and each poem is printed in the language in which it was originally written followed by an English translation.

Dr Mohammad Moniruzzaman is the author of 40 books including 500 poems and 1500 lyrics. In 1984 he has published 8 books.

He is presently the senior-most Professor of Bengali of the University of Dhaka. He is an elected member of the Dhaka University Syndicate and Senate. He is now the General Secretary of the Asiatic Society of Bangladesh.
