

তারিখ 09 JUL 1986
পৃষ্ঠা ৭ কলাম ৫

DU confers Ph D degrees on 6 researchers

DU Correspondent

The University of Dhaka recently conferred the degree of Ph.D. on six researchers on the recommendations of the Academic Council and the Syndicate. The Ph.D. degrees have been conferred on Mr. Abul Khatir Ashraf Uddin for his thesis entitled "Novel of Mirik Bardo-padhaya: Society and Man" under the Department of Bengali, Faculty of Arts, Mr. Md Nurul Amin for his thesis "Studies on the Chemical Modification of Jute Fabric" under the Department of Chemistry, Faculty of Science, Mrs. Jharna Debnath for her thesis "Dynamics of

Socio-Economic Change and the Role and Status of Women in Naimour: A case study of a Bangladesh village" under the Department of Sociology, Faculty of Social Science, Mrs

Shawkat Ara Hossain for her thesis "The Bengal Legislative Council 1911-1936" under the Department of Political Science, Faculty of Social Science and

Mrs. Ziaun Nahar for her thesis entitled "Achievement motivation and child rearing practices in Bangladesh: Correlates of intelligence and achievement motivation" under the Department of Psychology, Faculty of Biological Sciences.

Prof. Mohammad Morruzzaman, Prof. A. Jabbar Miah, Dr. H.K. Jahangir, Dr. Emajuddin Ahmed and Prof. Meqr. Fokhruzzaman were research guides for Mr. Md. Ashrafuddin, Mr. Md. Nurul Amin, Mrs. Jharna Debnath, Mrs. Shawkat Ara Hossain and Mrs. Ziaun Nahar respectively.