RU employees call off strike

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, Nov 9:—The joint committee of officers and employees of Rajshahi University on Saturday called off its indefinite time strike following a warning of authority of the university after five consecutive days.

The joint committee in an emergency executive committee meeting at its office with the President of the committee Dr. Wazed Hossain Beg in the chair this morning called off its strike.

It may be mentioned here that the authority of the university in an emergency syndicate meeting with the Vice-Chancellor of the University Prof M Yousuf Ali in the chair on Wednesday night decided that if the members of the joint committee fails to join their respective duties by November 10 legal action would be taken against them.

The joint committee started on indefinite strike from November 4 demanding immediate acceptance of various demands.
