

017

Awarded Ph D

Assistant Professor of Bengali, Chittagong University, Md Shah Jahan (Shahjahan Monir) was awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy by the Academic Council of the University of Chittagong for his thesis 'Bangla Shahiye Bangali Musalmaner Chintadhara (1919-1940)'. The degree was approved of by the Syndicate on December 1, 1988. Dr Anisuzzaman, Professor of Bengali, University of Dhaka was the supervisor of his research work. The two external examiners of his thesis were Dr Suresh Chandra Moirra, retired Professor of Bengali of Jadavpur University, Calcutta and Dr Mohammad Maniruzzaman, Professor of Bengali, University of Dhaka. Dr Shahjahan Monir is the son of Mr Md Maniruzzaman of Rajarkul union under Ramu upazila in the district of Cox's Bazar.

Mr Saurendra Nath Biswas, Assistant Professor of Bengali, Chittagong University was awarded the PhD Degree by the Academic Council of the University of Chittagong for his thesis 'Bibhuti, Bhushaner Upanyasher Satabarsher Bangladesh'. The degree was approved of by the Syndicate on the December 1, 1988. Dr Anisuzzaman, Professor of Bengali University of Dhaka was the supervisor of his research work. The two external examiners were Dr Abu Hena Mostafa Kamal, Director of Bangla Academy, Dhaka and Dr Ashit Kumar Banerjee retired Professor of Bengali of Calcutta University. Dr Biswas is the only son of Mr Nalin Ranjan Biswas of Patla under Terakha-da upazila of Khulna district.