

তারিখ 06 DEC 1986
পৃষ্ঠা... কলাম...

018

National Film Award for '87

The National Film Award for the year 1987 was declared in Dhaka on Monday, reports BSS.

According to an official handout the recipients of the award are, best director, A.J. Mintu (Lalu Mastan), best main actors (jointly) A.T.M. Shamsuzzaman (Dayee Ke) and

Contd. on page 8 col. 8

Film Award

Contd. from page 1

Alamgir (Apekkha), best main actress, Shabana (Apekkha), best side actors (jointly) Anwar Hossain (Dayee Ke) and Atul Khair (Raj Lakshmi-Srikanta), best side actress-Diti (Swami Sri), best music director-Alam Khan (Surrender), best editing-Aminul Islam Mintu (Apekkha), best photography (colour) Mahfuzur Rahman Khan (Sahajatri), best photography (black and white)-Abul Khair (Setubandhan), best script writer-Dilip Bishwas (Apekkha), best art director, Shahabuddin Bhuiyan (Harano sur), best male singer-Andrew Kishore (Surrender), best female singer-Sabina Yesmin (Rajlakshmi Srikanta), best sound recording-Mafizul Haq (Sandhi), best child actors (jointly)- Russel and Subarna Shirin (Rajlakshmi-Srikanta).

Best Film, best lyrics, best decorators, best dialogue writer and best short film were not considered.

Each of the selected awardee will get one bronze replica. Beside the replica the best director will get Taka 10,000 and others would get Taka 5,000 each.

The government had formed a 13-member jury to recommend for the national film award for the year 1987.