

28

055

377 high schools, 105 colleges gain recognition

Education Minister Sheikh Shahidul Islam said in the Jatiya Sangsad on Thursday that 377 non-Government high schools and 105 non-government colleges had been accorded recognition by four education boards of the country since 1986 reports BSS.

In reply to Mr. M. A. Hannan (Sylhet) the Education Minister said during the period 391 Dakhil, Aalim, Fazil and Kamil madrasas were given recognition under the Madrasa Board.

He said in 1986 all recognized non-government educational institutions were given grants. Since 1987, 667 educational institutions had applied for grants. Of them, 200 institutions were given grants out the first instalment during the current financial year.

(Handwritten signature)