

1985

13

Ghior College closed sine die

• Our Correspondent

MANIKGANJ, Sept 15: Ghior Government College was closed today for an indefinite period and police last night arrested one person following the clash in which at least 10 students including general secretary of the college students union were injured yesterday.

The principal of the college in the closure notice also asked all the residential

Contd on page 8 col 5

Ghior College

Contd from page 1

students to vacate their halls by tomorrow.

Police said, Liakat Ali an outsider, was arrested on the charge of his involvement in the clashes which took place between the activists of Chhatra Union and pro-JSD (Inu) Chhatra League.

Tension was prevailing in and around Ghior upazila town and additional police force was posted to keep the situation under control, police said.