Ramna students call off hunger strike after agreement

Staff Reporter

Students, teachers and employees of Ramna Railway High School called off their hunger strike yesterday following an agreement between the school authorities and the Director General of the Education Directorate.

Under the agreement, the school will now be housed at Suritola Ershad Government Primary School permanently and classes will begin at 11 a.m.

The agreement was signed by the vice-president of the managing committee of the school and the Director General of the Education Directorate. The school authorities in a press release thanked all who extended support to their cause and expressed sympathy.
