Sherpur College closed sine die

Our Correspondent

SHERPUR, April 2: Tension has been prevailing in and around the Sherpur Government College campus following demonstrations by rival student groups for and against holding students union election of the college.

The election to the Sherpur Government College students union which was scheduled to be held today, was postponed and the college was closed sine die following issuance of an injunction on the students union election by a local court due to violent clashes between rival groups of students.

The workers of BCL (S-A), Chhatra Oikya Samity and Chhatra Union gheraoed the office of the principal and kept confined all the teachers of the college till midnight.
