

Situation tense in old city: fire in students' hall

By A Staff Correspondent

A fire broke out in the Shaheed Suhrawardy Hall of Jagannath College at Goloktuly on Sunday afternoon. The Fire Brigade personnel brought the fire under control in two hours.

A Fire Brigade source could not ascertain the cause of fire and the extent of damage.

On the other hand, some young people moved around different parts of the old town with hockey and bamboo sticks on the day and a tense situation prevailed there.

Policemen were posted in front of different halls and they were guarding the two halls of Jagannath College which were set on fire on Saturday by mob.

Police also patrolled the old town areas throughout the day to check any untoward incident.

Police in the meanwhile evicted the students from different halls of Jagannath College since the incidents of Thursday.

old town areas on Sunday. No arrest has so far been made. Shops opened in different business centres on Sunday.

Dhaka Nagarik Adhikar Committee in a statement condemned the burning of different halls of Jagannath College and lawlessness.
