Ten hurt in students clash at Ctg. college

Our Chittagong Office

CHITTAGONG, Sept. 2.—At least 10 students were injured, two of them seriously in a clash between two rival groups of students at Chittagong Government Mohsin College premises on Wednesday afternoon.

According to eye-witnesses, some unruly students of Chittagong Government College armed with lethal weapons allegedly intruded into Mohsin College premises and attacked the rival students. The two rival groups then locked up in clashes that lasted about an hour. The police finally intervened and brought the situation under control.

BSS adds:— Kotwali police said the clash took place when a student's organisation brought out a procession in the college premises to protest against the killing of one of its members by rival group at Rangpur recently and the students belonging to another organisation opposed the processionists.

Police have taken one student into custody for questioning. Further investigation is going on.
