Mass literacy programme to be reintroduced reintroduce the mass literacy keep up their reading habits. programme after a gap of one. The evaluation' committee suspended during the period as tive if proper care was taken many of the projects under it of the methodological weakappeared to have failed to ness. meet targets wastages absence of evaluation corruption and lack of efforts to make the programme effective etc. . 200

The programme was initiated by late President Ziaur Rahman in February, 1980. A committee headed by Mr. Ferdouse Khan former Additional Secretary Ministry of Education that evaluated the programme hadfound that the drive did not achieve targets as it was based. more on emotional campaign rather than on appropriate methodology it could not generate interest among the illiterates who were the targets.

The programme also failed to evoke adequate participation of literate people particularly the primary teachers. There was

MOSTAFA KAMAL also, absence of follow-up acti-The Government is going to vities to keep neoditerates and a half years it is learnt. suggested that the programme The programme remained could have been more effec-