Unfair Means In SSC Exam

Sir,

Last year massive unfair means in the SSC examination took place as reported in the national dailies. As far as observation reveals all this was due to insincerity of a section of teachers, hall superintendent, centre secretary and above all a lack of uniform administrative pressure on all centres. In order to check the unfair means in the examination, the following measures should be adopted:

* The main centres and sub-centres should be so close that a magistrate can frequently visit all centres without killing the valuable three hours time travelling from one centre to another.

* Restriction on entrance to the examination centres should be imposed on all except invigilators, examinees, govt. officials, and the vigilance team.

* To prohibit the outsiders' entrance at least 2 members of the army should be deployed with police personnel.

* On the days specially, for English and Math, examination there should be government college teachers for each examination centre under special arrangement assigning them magistracy power.

* The Control Room in each district should be set up wherefrom the vigilance team can rush immediately to the cen-
