FFs' application date extended

The Government has decided to give another opportunity to those freedom fighter officers and staff who could not apply for getting the benefit for participation in the War of Liberation by April 30, 1971, reports BSS.

The Government has, therefore, extended the last date for submission of applications to December 31, 1978. The freedom fighter employees who could not apply earlier, are asked to submit applications to their respective Ministries/Division/Departments / Directorate / Corporation / autonomous bodies with all supporting papers. The applicants must explain to the satisfaction of their respective administrative department the reason of their failure to apply within April 30, 1977.

Those who have applied before or after 30.4.77 need not apply again.
